

THE SECRET PILGRIM CARR JOHN LE

the secret pilgrim wikipedia

The Secret Pilgrim. The Secret Pilgrim is a 1990 episodic novel by John le Carré, set within the frame narrative of an informal dinner talk given at the spy-training school in Sarratt by George Smiley. As Smiley talks, the first-person narrator, whom readers know only as "Ned," recalls his own experiences in a long career in the service.

"The Secret Pilgrim" is one of those works which show why le Carre is a class apart from the rest of his contemporaries who deal with the genre of spy thrillers. Almost written in the form of a short story collection, "The Secret Pilgrim" is a series of reminiscences by a British spy on the verge of his retirement.

Chippings from a master's chisel: ten short stories and an epilogue artfully disguised as a novel of post-glasnost reminiscences of espionage, all showing le Carre at his most nervously relaxed. Grand old man George Smiley agrees to address narrator Ned York's graduating class at Sarratt; his urbanely pointed remarks serve as the text for each of the retrospective anecdotes that follow.
